

Patients' Rights

1. A patient has the right to respectful care given by competent personnel.
2. A patient has the right, upon request, to be given the name of his attending practitioner, the names of all other practitioners directly participating in his care, and the names and functions of other health care personnel having direct contact with the patient.
3. A patient has the right to every consideration of his privacy concerning his own medical care program. Case discussion, consultation, examination and treatment are considered confidential and should be conducted discreetly.
4. A patient has the right to have records pertaining to his medical care treated as confidential except as otherwise provided by law or third-party contractual arrangements. Except when required by law, patients are given the opportunity to approve or refuse release of their records.
5. A patient has the right to know what Center rules and regulations apply to his conduct as a patient.
6. A patient has the right to expect emergency procedures to be implemented without unnecessary delay. A patient also has the right to be informed about Center provisions for emergency and after-hours care. A patient has the right to be informed of the Center's policy with regard to advance directives.
7. A patient has the right to good quality care and high professional standards that are continually maintained and reviewed. A patient has the right to receive information regarding the Center's credentialing and malpractice policies, information about the credentials of health care professionals and the absence of malpractice coverage, if applicable.
8. A patient has the right to full information, in lay terms, concerning diagnosis, treatment and prognosis, including information about alternative treatments and possible complications. When it is not medically advisable to give the information to the patient, the information shall be given on his behalf to the patient's next of kin or other appropriate person.
9. Except for emergencies, the physician shall obtain the necessary informed consent prior to the start of any procedure or treatment, or both.
10. A patient or, in the event the patient is unable to give informed consent, a legally responsible party, has the right to be advised when a physician is considering the patient as part of a medical care research program or donor program, and the patient or legally responsible party must give informed consent prior to actual participation in such program. A patient or legally responsible party may, at any time, refuse to continue in any such program to which he has previously given informed consent.

Patients' Rights

11. A patient has the right to refuse drugs, treatment, or procedures offered by the Center, to the extent permitted by law, and a physician shall inform the patient of the medical consequences of the patient's refusal of drugs, treatment or procedures.
12. A patient has the right to medical and nursing services without discrimination based upon race, color, religion, gender, sexual preference, national origin, or source of payment.
13. A patient who does not speak English shall have access, where possible, to an interpreter either on site or via phone or video interpretation
14. The Center shall provide the patient, or patient designee, upon request, access to the information contained in his medical records, unless the attending physician for medical reasons specifically restricts access.
15. A patient has the right to expect good management techniques to be implemented within the Center considering the effective use of time of the patient and to avoid the personal discomfort of the patient.
16. When medically advisable, a patient may be transferred to another facility. He or his next of kin or other legally responsible representative will be provided with complete information and an explanation concerning the needs for and alternatives to such a transfer. The institution to which the patient is to be transferred must first have accepted the patient for transfer.
17. A patient has the right to examine and receive a detailed explanation of his bill, and to receive information on fees for services received and on Center payment policies.
18. A patient has the right to be informed of his rights at the time of admission.
19. Marketing material does not mislead patients regarding the Center's capabilities or competence.
20. A patient has the right to be informed of procedures for expressing suggestions and policies regarding grievance procedures.
21. A patient has the right to expect that the Center will provide information for continuing health care requirements following discharge and the means for meeting them.
22. A patient has the right to request another provider should one be available at the facility.
23. A patient has the right to be free from all forms of abuse and harassment.

Patients' Responsibilities

Patients are expected to:

1. Provide accurate and complete information about their present complaints, past medical illnesses, hospitalizations, surgeries, medications, over the counter products, dietary supplements, and other matters relating to their health, including allergies and sensitivities.
2. Tell their health care providers whether they understand the treatment, plan of care, and what is expected of the patient, and follow the agreed-upon treatment plan.
3. Help the physicians, nurses and other allied health personnel in their efforts to care for patients by following their instructions and medical orders.
4. Provide a responsible adult to transport him/her from the facility and remain with him/her for 24 hours if required by his/her provider.
5. Inform his/her provider about any living will, medical consent or medical power of attorney or other directive that could affect his/her care.
6. Accept personal financial responsibility for any charges not covered by his/her insurance.
7. Be respectful of all health care providers and staff as well as other patients.
8. Observe the no smoking policy of the Center.
9. Meet all financial obligations incurred for services provided at the Center.

Complaints and Grievances

It is always best to make every effort to address patient/visitor complaints internally through discussion, investigation and potential action by/among Center personnel and the patient/visitor. Complaints and grievances should initially be brought to the attention of the Administrator of the facility.

If necessary, patients/visitors wishing to register a complaint regarding the Center with the Pennsylvania Department of Health may do so by calling 1-877-724-3258. If you choose to submit your complaint in writing, please send to the following address:
